SAVE TIME AND MONEY

MAXIMIZE YOUR INVESTMENT. EARN CREDIT FOR YOUR PREVIOUS LEARNING THROUGH APU'S PLA PROGRAM.

American Public University recognizes that not all college-level learning takes place at a university. Learning may occur on the job, during corporate training, at volunteer work, at public service academies, or in many other situations. APU is pleased to accept credit recommendations from a variety of sources and offers a portfolio option for students who have not documented their learning through other means.

Through our prior learning assessment (PLA) program, your employees may maximize their dollars and minimize the time it takes to complete a career-related degree or certificate.

“ PLA enabled me to save time and money toward earning my degree. The PLA team walked me through the process of building a portfolio documenting aspects of my work history and experience. I am now 12 credits closer to my business administration degree. ”

— Don Schaefer, Graduate,
Bachelor's of Business Administration

In addition to on-the-job-training, other common options available at APU for earning credit for non-traditional learning include CLEP, DANTES, and ACE evaluated learning.
